VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

Meeting in Wake.

We are authorized to state that a meeting of the citizens of Wake County will be held at the Court House, in this city, on Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock, M., for the purpose of making arrangements to secure representation from this Congressional District in the approaching National Convention at Philadelphia.

The Railroads Again.

We prefer vastly, for the sake of peace and quiet, and for the sake of the Editor of that paper, to pass unnoticed, at all times, the miserable twaddle and demagoguery, as well as the frequent perversions of truth and matters of fact, indulged in by the Radical organ of this city. But to preserve perfect silence would seem to give a coloring of truth and propriety to its course, and with some would be regarded as a tacit admission of its integrity and fairness.

The last number of that paper shows, that it is seriously afflicted at the late Railroad appointments by Gov. Worth, and it gives vent to its bile.

It is claimed that Gov. Holden turned Messrs. Hawkins and Whitford out of the Railroads, "in order to place the Railroads on a loyal basis, as he was ordered to do, and which he did with the President's approval." Of course, for the same reason, Mr. Mordecai was turned out of the State Bank. The Railroads and Banks of this State, as well as their foundations of earth, rock, brick, oak and iron, were so rebellious, they must be put upon a loyal basis!—That is the legitimate inference from the teaching. But this Radical paper meant, that some of the officers were so disloyal—i. e. were so offensive to the Ex. P. G., that they must be relieved, to put in his favorites.

We do not know, positively, what part President Johnson acted in regard to the Railroads and Banks of this State. At the time the action occurred, it was strongly impressed upon us that Gov. Holden was the author of the whole scheme; that he made such representations to the President as led him to believe that the Union cause would be seriously compromised by allowing these officers to remain, and that, therefore, he ordered such a course as the Ex. P. G. might see proper to take. Facts prove, most conclusively, that interference with the Railroads and Banks was no part of the President's plan of reconstruction, and these facts have confirmed us in the opinion we first formed. We believe that this view is correct for the following reasons:

1. If any of the Railroads and Banks of this State were disloyal, all were. If the officers of one or more of the Railroads and Banks were disloyal, they all were, in that they were compelled to aid the Confederacy and the State in prosecuting the war. Now, if it had been a feature in, or a part of, the plan of reconstruction of the President to punish the Railroads and Banks, or their officers, for the part they took in aid of the war, simple justice and propriety required that all should have been treated alike in all the Southern States.

2. In this State five Railroad Presidents were removed by the peremptory order of Gov. Holden: Messrs. Hawkins, Webb, Whitford, Wallace and Powell; and Messrs. Boyden, Lassiter, Thomas, Caldwell and Bridges, then regarded as the warm friends and supporters of Gov. Holden, were substituted. The loyalty of these ten gentlemen was determined by the ipse dixit of the Prov. Gov., although, if any safe or correct rule of interpretation of the meaning of loyalty had been applied, the first five could have shown as high a claim to it, at the time, as the five last named. All of the five were removed against the wishes of the Stockholders, and only one of them, so far as we have learned, Mr. Bridger, has been entirely acceptable to the Stockholders since, as a Railroad man. We only state what we understand to be the fact, intending no unfair or invidious reflection upon them, personally or otherwise. Again, Mr. Mordecai was the only President of a Bank removed, and, with the exception of a few changes in the directory of the Cape Fear Bank, no other interference was attempted. Why not? Why were only five Railroads, and two Banks, interfered with?—Will it be replied that these were the only ones in which the State had an interest? But if all the Railroads and all the Banks were equally guilty, the President had as much control over the one as the other, and if it had been a part of his plan, all would have been treated alike. The whole affair, so far as the public know and so far as we can see, looks as if it were a plan on the part of the Prov. Gov. to vent his spleen upon particular parties. Again, why was not the same course pursued towards the Railroads and Banks of other States? Does any one believe that President Johnson would judge his native State more rigorously and deal out to her more severity than to the rest? Impossible.

But admitting that the President ordered the programme, just as Gov. Holden carried it out, what has Gov. Worth to do with it now?—Gov. Worth has received no such orders from the President. Indeed, the President, by his peace proclamation, yields his military prerogative to interfere in civil matters. So far as the authority of the President extends in the affairs of this State, Gov. Worth would consult his wishes with as much alacrity as Gov. Holden, but Gov. Worth must not be expected to yield to any one claims of authority not sanctioned by the Constitution and the law of the land.—He sustains the President warmly and sincerely, because the President bases his action upon the Constitution and the law, as well as the practice of the government, in endeavoring to restore it to its former status.

The law makes it the duty of the Governor to appoint directors of the several railroads to the number claimed by the State according to the amount of its stock. The law gives no power to appoint or remove Presidents of Railroads or Banks. He has appointed the directors for four roads. The annual meeting of the other road, or roads, will not be held for several months; hence, he has deferred making appointments for them.

He was anxious to do full justice to all in those appointments, and, at the same time, to do right. He was, moreover, anxious to gratify all his friends, and, if possible, not to affront any one, provided that he could do justice to the roads and take care of the State's interest in them. As usual in such cases, some of his best friends are disappointed. He had thirty-one appointments to make, and there were at least one hundred and fifty whose claims were urged. We judge the Governor is somewhat in the condition of his disappointed friends. He would have been glad, no doubt, to have had places for all, but this could not be. Various considerations had to be taken into the account. The wishes of the Stockholders, as far as he could ascertain them, we have no doubt, was the preponderating principle that controlled him, having due regard to fitness and to the various local interests which necessarily operated. Gov. Worth stands by the appointments as the best that could be done, under the circumstances, in view of the various conflicting claims and presentations made. We would not have made some of the appointments, yet we are so confident of the honest purposes of the Governor and the Board of Internal Improvement to do the best they could, that we cannot think there is just cause for complaint.

Gov. Worth is charged with having removed Messrs. Lassiter and Thomas. This is untrue. He gave no instructions to the Directors of the State how to vote, yet the Stockholders of both Roads had given such unequivocal endorsement of Messrs. Hawkins and Whitford, that he was satisfied the result would be what it is. He had no power to defeat Mr. Hawkins, if he had been so inclined, and the endorsements of Mr. Whitford were so strong, he would not defeat him if he could. In both cases, as the State Directors voted in accordance with the known wishes of the Stockholders, we have no doubt he thinks they did right. And so do we.

But he is complained of for the appointment of Hon. C. C. Clark. Mr. C. we judge, was appointed as a representative man, as the choice of the Craven Stockholders, and because of his known active interest in the Road. If, however, the Board of Directors or the Stockholders had objected officially, we have no doubt the Governor and Mr. C. would have readily met their views.

A poor attempt at fault-finding is made in the form of a complaint because of the manner of making known the appointments of the State. The truth is, the appointments were not made until the latest moment of the departure of the train the day before the Stockholders, meeting. It was feared that they would have to be forwarded by Express to reach Beaufort in time. Hence, not knowing certainly that the State proxy would reach Beaufort in time, they were sent to James Rumley, Esq., in order that they might certainly be there, in proper hands, in time. If so happened that a Stockholder was at the train going down and took charge of them. If there was any informality in the matter, it was owing to the late hour the appointments were determined upon.

The interested correspondent of the Radical organ, who labors to create a sensation against Mr. Worth, because of the disappointments of some, would do well to cease his whimperings and look well to the integrity and consistency of his own record, before he assails his betters. Gov. Worth is too far above the assaults of malice, in the rectitude of his purposes and the consistency of his life, personally or politically, to be injured by such assailants. Nothing can scarcely exceed the selfishness of those men, who were appointed to office on account of their opinions, and accepted the positions of those who were turned out of the Rail Roads for opinion's sake, even against the wishes of the individual Stockholders, and who now whimper and complain, because, under an administration that will not punish men for opinion's sake, and an administration which they opposed and wished to defeat, the former occupants are restored to their rightful positions!

The National Convention—Meeting in Mecklenburg.

A meeting was held in Charlotte, yesterday, for the purpose of appointing delegates to a District Convention, to meet in Salisbury on the 24th instant, to select delegates to represent the District in the National Convention to assemble in Philadelphia on the 14th of August next.

Jos. H. Wilson, Esq. presided, and R. P. Waring, Esq., acted as Secretary.

The meeting was ably and eloquently addressed by Gov. Vance, Capt. John Walker, and Judge Osborne.

The following gentlemen were appointed Delegates to the District Convention, viz: Wm. R. Myers, John Walker, Z. B. Vance, J. W. Osborne, R. D. Whitley, T. L. Vail, T. N. Alexander, Z. B. Morris, S. B. Watson, R. L. DeArmon, Col. W. B. Cochran, James M. Hutchinson, Alex. McIver, W. S. Norment, Thos. Price, Wm. M. Greer, Jas. B. Robinson, Williamson Wallace, W. J. Yates, Rev. John Hunter, and Col. John A. Young.

Those who set to work, blindly, unreasoningly, and persistently, to injure or destroy others, are very apt, in the long run, to ruin themselves. A man who should attempt to spring a mine beneath the feet of an adversary, and who, in arranging his explosives and laying his train, observes neither caution or prudence, but handles his lighted matches with as much carelessness as he would in the open air, far away from gun-powder or nitro-glycerine, is in imminent danger of being blown to atoms himself. Many an engineer has been thus "hoist by his own petard."

The Radicals in Congress, for now eight months nearly, have been essaying every expedient which a wicked and malicious ingenuity could invent, to oppress and degrade the people of the South,—a work in which, to the shame of humanity be it spoken, they have had apostate coadjutors in our own midst. An attentive observer of the signs of the times, however, cannot fail to perceive that, while thus engaged, they have really been sowing the seed of their own political overthrow.

In point of actual fact, there is but one section of the Country in which fanaticism and Radicalism can thrive for any considerable length of time. To New England soil these noxious weeds are indigenous,—it is there that, watered by the crocodile tears of a spurious philanthrophy, and exposed to the sickly sun-shine of a puritanical sentimentality, they grow in a rank and fetid luxuriance. We do not by any means say that there is not plenty of Radicalism elsewhere, but, wherever found, its votaries are either emigrants from New England, or they are personally designing and corrupt men, who are governed by personal interest and ambition, party lust or private hate and revenge,—as in the case, for instance, of the amiable Stevens, whose iron works were burned at Gettysburg! But the peculiar circumstances of the times, and the pressure of events growing out of the war, have caused thousands of honest and well meaning people throughout the North and Northwest to suffer themselves to be drawn into the mad current of New England frenzy, without reflecting whither they were drifting or upon the consequences of their course. As the passions of the hour cool, and reason resumes her sway, those who have been thus deluded will spurn with loathing and scorn the fanatics with whom they have been co-operating, and will wonder that they could have been duped by such men into such paths. Such a revulsion of popular sentiment is, we believe, daily progressing. The eyes of the nation are being gradually opened to the enormities that have been perpetrated under the guise of devotion to the government. They begin to see and appreciate the true character of the malignants, who, while professing to love the Union and to be laboring for its perpetuity, have been surely and steadily perverting and subverting it. And thus, these men, while really working, under false pretences, for individual and party aggrandizement, have wrought their own ultimate annihilation as a party. The mask is being stripped from their faces, their moral and political deformity being exposed, and the day is not distant when they will stand before the country and the world in their true light as political charlatans and monsters of the first water.

Perhaps what has most tended to open the eyes of the people of the great Northwest to the dangerous alliance which they have been deceived into forming with New England Radicalism, is the new Tariff scheme which the selfish monopolists of that section are endeavoring to pass through Congress. Such a bill as that proposed will be a death-blow to the great interests of the Northwest, and, before submitting to it, they will raise a storm about the ears of their former New England allies, that promises a wholesome diversion in favor of conservatism. Between the States of the great West and those of New England there is and can be no affinity. The interests of the former are identified with those of the South and West, through which flows the "Father of Waters". They will yet join those States in the general crusade of all the lovers of the Union against New England Radicalism, and crush it into the vile dust from whence it sprung.

The census contains some facts not very complimentary to the righteous Puritans. Massachusetts, with a population but little less than Illinois, has about six times as many paupers and more than ten times as many criminals. Georgia, with a population about the same as Massachusetts, has about one-fifteenth as many paupers and one twentieth as many criminals. Taken together, the average pauperism and crime in New England are about eight times greater than in any other equal portion of the population of the country. What the Puritans lack in these respects they make up in pretension. With eight times more paupers and criminals proportionally than the rest of the country, they pretend to about eight times more virtue than the remainder of the human race.

Visitors to Mr. Davis.—Burton Harrison, formerly private secretary to Mr. Davis, and George W. Brown, one of the counsel, arrived at Fortress Monroe on Saturday morning, and spent the whole day inside the fort with Jefferson Davis and family. The visit is presumed to have been merely of a social nature. They left tonight for Baltimore. These visits of friends, unobtrusively coming and going, almost daily occur, and preclude any idea of significance being attached to them.

Though there is but a single general officer to be chosen at the ensuing August election in Kentucky—and he not an important one—the contest waxes very warm. The chief reasons of this warmth are, that the contest is the first, since the close of the revolution, in which all the people of the state have had an opportunity to participate, and that it will determine not only the present strength of parties, but the political complexion of the grand old commonwealth for many years to come.

If perseverance commands success, then the projectors of the Atlantic Telegraph will subdue all difficulties at last. Again there is an attempt to lay the cable across the ocean, and all that human foresight and skill can devise and execute has been done to insure against another failure. We give the project our best wishes.

"Our friends of the Raleigh Sentinel seem to think it would be awful bad policy to run a candidate against Gov. Worth, and they now have a great deal to say about our being united and causing no division among ourselves,—forgetting that last Fall they were foremost in engendering division and strife, while many of us plead for harmony, and for the sake of peace were willing to take a gentleman for Governor whose previous course we could not, and did not, fully endorse. But circumstances alter cases with the Sentinel."—Western Democrat.

Our friend, of the Democrat, is simply mistaken in his application of motives to the Sentinel. We favored the election of Gov. Worth, last Fall, for the reason that we have often given: that we became morally certain, that if Gov. Holden were run alone, the people would not vote for him, and we should be presented to the North in the damaging attitude of having but ten or fifteen thousand Union men in the State. If Gov. Holden had run alone, he would not have obtained more than fifteen thousand votes. When we came to that conclusion, we informed the gentlemen who had urged that reason upon us, that, if there must be opposition to bring out the Union vote, we owed it to the Government to select a better Union man, with a better Union record, than Governor Holden; and it was then that we named Jonathan Worth as that man. When he became a candidate, we supported him for that reason, and for the additional one that he had been more consistent as a public man, more reliable as a man of riper judgment and experience, and possessing far more administrative ability. These, in our judgment, were reasons sufficiently strong to influence our action. The national position of the State had then the strongest influence upon us, and the sequel fully sustains the correctness of our position.—For whatever influence Gov. Holden then had with the President, we felt sure would be neutralized by his subsequent course. Is there a considerate citizen who does not feel positively certain, that the condition of the State is far better, at the present time, than it would have been, it Gov. Holden had been elected? Every one must think so, except those who believe that Tennessee is in a better condition than North Carolina; unless his election might have cured him of his Radical, strait-sect proclivities. We admit that that might have been the case.

Hence, then, we thought the object to be obtained justified the risk of division. Then, no two adverse parties or classes divided the opinions of the State. All professed to be supporters of the President, but the people, who knew the men better than the President did, differed simply as to the proper man, to carry out his policy.

The Democrat is mistaken in supposing that we are uneasy or alarmed at the idea of all opposition to Gov. Worth, now. On national grounds we would deprecate division among the supporters of President Johnson in this State. As we have repeatedly said, there is but one issue before our people, i. e. shall Radicalism or President Johnson's policy prevail? If the friends of Radicalism should see fit to concentrate opposition on a candidate against Gov. Worth, we should neither object nor complain. If a majority of the friends of Constitutional Union, or if the public feeling in the State among the friends of President Johnson's policy, plainly indicated such dissatisfaction with Gov. Worth and his administration, as developed a decided preference for some one else, we have no idea that Gov. Worth would have allowed his name to be used for re-election. But public sentiment, both before and since the announcement of his name, has expressed so fully and unequivocally the confidence of the people in him, and their preference for his re-election, that we do not anticipate opposition from that quarter.

In the matter of appointments, there are those who, only looking upon the outside of things, complain. Were they cognizant of all the facts they would not. Yet admitting that there is cause of complaint about the few appointments which unfortunately so many wanted, (and hence, many were obliged to be disappointed,) we cannot believe that the patriotism of the friends of Constitutional Union can be so shallow, as to jeopard the harmony and union of the friends of President Johnson's policy, for a reason so trivial and so sinister.

Admirable Sentiment.—The following sentiment was transmitted by Secretary Welles, of the Navy Department, to be read at the late Tammany Hall celebration on the 4th of July. It embodies the only true principle upon which the Government can be maintained:

"The Union of the States—only to be maintained by a faithful observance of the rights of the States."

While we are not, for reasons which we have given time and again, a particular admirer of Jonathan Worth as a public man, yet believing under the present circumstances he is the best one we can get for the position of Governor, we will waive our personal feelings and give him whatever support for the position we can. In accordance with that determination, we to-day announce him as a candidate for re-election in October next. Now as to who is our choice for the newly created office of Lt. Governor, we say unqualifiedly that it is Col. D. D. Ferebee, of Camden county. Col. F. is an Eastern man, (as Gov. Worth is from the West,) is a gentleman of fine abilities, a good and tried friend of the South.—Williamston Expositor.

If a man sells his watch for fifty dollars, buys it back for forty dollars, then sells it for forty-five dollars, how much does he make in the transaction? It looks as if he made fifteen dollars, but he didn't.

An English paper relates that Rev. Paul Hamilton, a Scottish clergyman, preached a farewell sermon to the ladies of Ayr, and not a little to the surprise of his fair auditory, gave out his text—"And they fell upon Paul's neck, and kissed him."

There is now prevailing in this county a disease of a very fatal character termed "Malignant chill and fever." Its attacks are without premonitory symptoms, and no danger is at first apprehended. Unless, though, promptly attended to, death is apt to ensue. We would advise those attacked with a chill to make no delay in obtaining the services of a physician.—Williamston Expositor.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Raleigh, July 10th, 1866.

To Sheriffs and Tax Collectors:—The following letter to the Sheriff of New Hanover will explain your duties in regard to some points, about which there seem to be some difficulty and difference of opinion. The rules laid down apply to the other taxes imposed in Schedule B, except that retailers of spirituous liquors pay $50 for the year during which their license was granted by the County Courts, but, if they have already paid the Convention tax, they pay nothing more to the State. Where counties have imposed taxes under Schedule B, by a recent Ordinance of the Convention, you will collect the county taxes under the same rule as State taxes.

KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

RALEIGH, July 6th, 1866.

SAMUEL R. BUNTING, Esq.,
Sheriff of New Hanover County,
Wilmington, N. C.,

Dear Sir:—Your two letters, making inquiries in regard to your duties in the collection of taxes, came to hand this evening. I hasten to reply.

1st. You say certain merchants have listed their purchases of liquors from April 1st, 1865 to April 1st, 1866, having already paid taxes on the same from April 1st, 1865, to January 1st, 1866.

I called the attention of the Convention to this hardship, and the evil has been remedied by a law entitled "An Ordinance in relation to the Act of the General Assembly entitled 'Revenue,'" copies of which I forwarded to the Sheriffs.

By this ordinance, if taxes on purchases from April 1st, 1865 to January 1st, 1866, have been actually paid, under the Revenue ordinance of the Convention the purchaser is not to list these purchases again.

Where parties have listed a second time, the mode of relief is pointed out in section 39 of the Act for collecting Revenue. Let application be made to the County Court, and a certificate of the correction be made by the Clerk, to the Comptroller, as there directed. If money has been paid you, it is at your discretion to refund it, (at your risk,) with the understanding that if the County Court does not grant relief, it shall be repaid you.

2nd. You desire to know what specific tax must be paid by those using articles subject to such tax, since January 1st, 1866. You will find the law made clear by the ordinance of the Convention referred to previously. If the parties have paid for the use of the articles during 1865 under the Revenue ordinance of the Convention, only half is payable for the time since January 1st, 1866.

The Convention, in October 1865, by section 7th. of the "Ordinance declaring what laws and Ordinances are in force," re-enacted the tax laws of 1858-'9. By that law, these specific taxes were imposed on certain articles e. g: Bowling Alleys, Billiard Tables, &c., in use at any time during the year previous to 1st July, 1866. The last General Assembly changed the law to some extent, but not much. The specific taxes were collectable by the Sheriff immediately, and it would have been better not to have waited until July. If the Sheriffs had collected before the 1st of July, 1866, it would have been beyond dispute, that the preamble of schedule B only allowed licenses to that time. Having waited until the present time, there are two taxes due, one for the past year and one for the coming year. You must not be deceived by section 32 of schedule B. The ordinance in relation to the act of the General Assembly entitled "Revenue," declares what was intended, that section 32 shall only apply to licenses of whiskey distillers.

When specific taxes have been paid on bowling alleys &c., under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention, as I have before said, only half taxes are payable for the year preceding 1st. July 1866, under the Act of Assembly.

But it must be remembered that the tax is on the articles themselves, and becomes due, no matter how long or how short a time they are in actual use. This has always been the case.

Billiard tables, &c., used only at watering places during the summer months, always paid the same tax as those in service all the year round. Hence if they are exposed for public custom at any time since January 1st. 1866, or at any other time during the past year, the whole tax is due, if nothing was paid under the Revenue Ordinance of the Convention. Remembering these general principles, it is not difficult to answer your questions on this branch of the law.

You state the case: "A opened a bowling alley on the 1st. January last, has kept it open since, and wishes to take a license from July 1st. 1866, to July 1st. 1867." You ask me what A. must pay for the six months succeeding 1st. July 1866? I answer he pays $50.

2nd. If the preceding time is less than six months, say for three months, what tax does he pay for that time? I answer $50.

3rd. "Having paid the tax for the year preceding 1st July, is he entitled to a license for the balance of the year ensuing that day, without further payment, or must he also pay the tax for the ensuing year, before he gets his license; or, in other words, are the specific taxes for the year ensuing 1st July 1866, to be paid at the beginning or at the end of the year?"

Answer:—The payment of the past tax does not give a right to do business for the ensuing year. The specific taxes for the coming year, ending 1st July 1867, should be paid now. A reference to Section 81 of the Act for collecting Revenue, will show this clearly. That section imposes a penalty for carrying on business without a license, which license is obtainable on the payment of the tax.

4th. Your 4th question is: "A, keeps a bowling saloon, which contains three alleys; does each pay $50, or is the whole saloon, one bowling alley, subject to one tax?

Answer:—The Dictionaries define a "bowling alley" to be a "covered place for playing at bowls." According to this definition, the "bowling saloon" is only another name for a "bowling alley" and only one tax is due. Of course, however, if the different alleys are owned and carried on as separate establishments, they would pay separate taxes, notwithstanding they are covered by the same roof.

I have written to Messrs. Engelhard & Price, that, in my opinion, editors are not liable to pay for their purchases of paper, under Sec. 21 Schedule B. You will notice the section only applies to "traders," and I do not think Editors are considered as "traders," within the meaning of the section, any more than farmers are, because they buy manures, and, with them, make agricultural products for sale.

Very Respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

Mails.—We learn that Dr. Jobe, the mail agent for this State, is in Raleigh. We would be glad if he would visit this part of North Carolina, and see how afflicted we are (not like his name-sake, with boils, but) with the want of mail facilities. The Government has, since the war ended, given us a plenty of females in way of teachers. Now we want some mails.—Williamston Expositor.

THE SENTINEL.

Wednesday Evening, July 11, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Pulliam, Jones & Co. announce an assortment of choice Wines.

Court advertisement from Franklin County.

See announcement of Washington College, Lexington, Va. It is sufficient to say of this Institution that it is presided over by Gen. Robert E. Lee.

The Fall Session of Trinity College, under the able auspices of President Craven, will commence on the 9th of August.

Mrs. Branch, President of the Ladies' Memorial Association, solicits proposals for marble or granite head and foot slabs for the graves of six hundred deceased Confederate soldiers.

DANCING SCHOOL.—The Young Men's class will meet this (Wednesday) evening, at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Milum states that this will be positively the last night set for a commencement of his school. Those who do not join to-night will have no further opportunity at present.

ANOTHER ROBBERY.—We omitted to mention, in the list of robberies announced on Monday, that Gov. Worth's premises had also been invaded, and a new saddle stolen. The saddle-skirts were padded in front,—drab-housing and wooden stirrups.

THE CROPS.—The Williamston (Martin Co.) Expositor says that the crops of corn and cotton in the Roanoke country are as fine as they have been in any preceding year.

A correspondent of the Norfolk Virginian, writing from Edenton, says that the crops in the Albemarle region "are backward, and not so good as they could be desired. The cotton generally is looking badly; more attention is paid to cotton than any other article. This County (Chowan) formerly produced large quantities of wheat and corn, which found its way to Norfolk; but the yield this year will not be more than is required for home consumption. Formerly there were many wealthy and very extensive planters, but few large ones now."

ATTEMPT TO KILL.—We learn from the Wilmington Journal, that a cowardly effort was made on Thursday night last, to kill Mr. William J. Walker, a peaceable, inoffensive citizen living on Long Creek, in New Hanover county. He was shot near the shoulder in each arm with large shot, and the wounds are dangerous. He was aroused about midnight from sleep by the effects of fire, and found his house burning up. In attempting to extinguish the flames, he was fired upon from ambush, and the guilty party then fled.

Circumstances point, adds the Journal, with unerring certainty to Ned Bell and Hardy McAllister, freedmen, in that section, as being connected with this diabolical deed.

"GREY MOSS."—A writer in the Metropolitan Record proposes in the following, a new emblem for the South, in the live oak and the "grey moss," which drapes our Southern forests with its flowing festoons and pendants:

On the bank of the Mississippi I lately passed the ruins of a stately mansion, probably once a happy home. The chimneys and massive columns alone stood; shot, shell and fire had effectually done their mission, the orange grove was destroyed, a few straggling shoots of "the cloth of gold," and a "blood-red rose," the "giant of battles," showed the spot where once had been a garden. There was no sign of life or cultivation; but amid all this devastation there towered, unscathed, in immortal verdure, a live oak, heavily draped with the mournful moss. And this, I thought, should be the future emblem of the South, the oak, the more firmly rooted, the less liable to decay, from the tempests it had withstood, and the removal of the adornments that had been torn from around it,—the moss,—that's for remembrance.

HON. ROBERT RIDGEWAY.—In a letter to the Lynchburg News, Hon. Robert Ridgeway expresses himself as opposed to the formation of parties in Virginia at this time; says it is our policy to maintain a "masterly inactivity" pending the tenure of power now held by the "despotic and soulless Radical majority in Congress," and declares that it is the "solemn duty of each and all of us—indeed, of good men and patriots in every portion of the Republic—to stand by, sustain and encourage the administrative policy of President Johnson."

SHARKS IN SOUTHERN WATERS.—Some young men, while bathing in Mobile (Ala.) bay, were attacked by sharks. One was bitten in two, and then devoured. The other succeeded in escaping. A large number of sharks are believed to be visiting Mobile, attracted by the refuse thrown into the water. The young man killed was unknown in the city. He came from Charleston, S. C. He was totally devoured, with the exception of a portion of his clothing.

A handsome church, to cost $50,000, is being erected at Tarrytown N. Y., as a memorial to Washington Irving.

John G. Saxe says it is not necessary to be a profligate, a mendicant, or to be predisposed to pulmonary consumption, to be a poet.

The Radical Albany Evening Journal speaks of Radical Rev. Hon. Grinnell as the man who was whipped into notoriety.

Professor Agassiz is coming home with his head full of hair-splitting names, and new theories of natural history.

In a letter to the Philadelphia Press, Forney states that he has information upon which he places full reliance, "that a complete plan of operations has been adopted for preventing the different Legislatures of the South, and even those of the North, from ratifying the new amendment of the National Constitution."

"Don't be a fool, Mr. Duck."

It was James T. Babcock, Collector of the port of New Haven—formerly editor of the Palladium—who, in an energetic editorial, exclaimed, "Is there no balm in Gilead?" Imagine his consternation, next morning, to find his sentence turned into the startling question, "Is there no barn in Guildford?"

The New York Tribune is indignant at Antioch College because the faculty would not allow a female to deliver a thesis in full bloomer costume.

The "Atlantic Monthly," the loudest once of Freedom shriekers, coolly tells the negroes if they are not satisfied with their condition they can emigrate.

The Right of Representation—The Test Oath.

We are pleased to see that the National Intelligencer disclaims any intention to "endorse or adopt the heresies on the subject of the test oath." It lays down the true doctrine as follows; and it is a doctrine that no people can surrender who are not willing to hold the exercise of representation at the caprice of the majority, rather than under the shelter of abiding and fundamental principles. Gov. Orr, in his unsteadiness, and want of nerve, may advise its surrender, but the people of the South will understand their interests better:

"The highest duty of this Congress was, and is, the completion of the restoration of the Union by the admission of the Southern Senators and Representatives. Until this representation shall have been admitted there can be no perfect restoration of the Union. The Constitution imposes upon Congress the duty of admitting these applicants for seats in that body. It does not leave to them the right to determine whether a State shall be entitled to representation. It does not accord to them even the privilege to go behind the record of election and enquire into any other qualifications than those fixed by the Constitution itself. These are determined by that instrument: 'Each House shall be the judge of the election, returns, and qualifications of its own members.' The qualifications are accurately defined: 'No person shall be a Representative who shall not have attained the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State in which he shall be chosen;' and, 'No person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.'

"These simple qualifications, prescribed by the great charter of our liberties, are all with which Congress has any concern. These provisions of the Constitution comprise all the authority and all the privileges of Congress over the subject. * * * * * *

"It was, and is, not only the right, but the duty of Congress to examine and judge of the election, returns and qualifications of the applicants for seats in that body from the Southern as well as from the Northern States. This duty, its extent and limitations, are plainly and unequivocally set forth in the Constitution itself. In the performance of this duty, Congress has no right to go beyond the qualifications therein expressed. It has nothing whatever to do with the question of loyalty. That is a qualification to be determined only by the people—the constituents of the Senators and members of Congress who present themselves for admission." * * *

WASHINGTON, July 8.

The Tariff—Who Fathers the Monster and who Wont—The Temper of Congress and People on the Matter—Prospect of Adjournment or Recess.

No section of the country will acknowledge the paternity of the tariff monster. The Northwest imputes it to New England, and New England repudiates it and throws it back upon the Northwest. Pennsylvania may father it, but it must be left to Pennsylvania, in that case, to provide for and support it. A wool-growing interest in Eastern Ohio, and some interests in New York and New Jersey have fostered it. The mass of the people of the country are hostile to it, and will not permit it long to disgrace our statutes. If the President does not veto it, if passed, as he is earnestly urged to do, both by Eastern and Western radical presses, the people will thrust out of power the members who may foist it upon them.

The attempt to force such an iniquitous measure by the Radical majority of the House, will, no doubt, secure their overthrow at the coming elections. New England has no interest in, and has given no aid to, this scheme. Neither has the Northwest as a community. But the majority of the representatives from those two sections have been eager to unite with the outside combinations whereby the scheme was concocted, and with the aid of which it is to be carried. This tariff is not called for by the people of the West and East, but it is the result of an intrigue in which members from those sections, with some exceptions, are concerned. Senator Wilson declares that he will not vote for it, and hopes, he says, that no member from Massachusetts will. It is not to be assumed, said Senator Sherman, that the Senate will pass a measure that is injurious to the public interests—why not, as well as the House? If the measure be made a party issue, party men will support it, however injurious it may be, even in their own estimation. Besides, it is very easy to make the allegation that the duties are prohibitive, and destructive of commerce and of the revenue. Mr. Stevens has settled that question for the party. He declared that the bill was really a free-trade measure.

Congress is becoming restive under the infliction of late sittings and hot weather. A stampede menaced. The project of a recess for a longer or shorter interval is again talked of. If an adjournment takes place, a joint committee will be left here to manage political matters.

Yours, &c. IOTA.

South Carolina.

Governor Orr has issued an address to the people of South Carolina, in which he heartily approves of the objects of the Philadelphia Convention, and urges upon them the duty of immediately electing delegates to the State Convention which meets at Columbia on the first of August to appoint delegates to the National Convention. The Governor says: "There is not one principle of this address to which this State cannot subscribe in honor and with sincerity."

Rumored Rupture Between the President and Stanton.

WASHINGTON, July 10, P. M.

The President received visitors to-day. There are rumors of a rupture between the President and Stanton, consequent on the arbitrary measures of the latter in the case of Paymaster Paulding, whom he hurried off to Fort McHenry under guard. The President directed him to stay proceedings until the Bureau of Military Justice could review the case and report to him, and issued an order for Paulding's immediate return.

Stanton also dismissed three Paymasters,—Lt. Cols. Dodge, Jamieson and Ely,—who testified before the Court in defence and justification of Paulding.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, July 10., P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Stewart submitted a resolution, which lies over, requesting the President to interpose in behalf of the Fenian prisoners in Canada.

HOUSE.—The bill fixing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court was passed with amendments, which provides that no vacancies shall be filled until the number shall be reduced to six, and ever after the Court shall consist of one Chief Justice and six Associate Judges. It also makes certain changes in the places of holding the Courts. Under this bill, Virginia, North and South Carolina are in the 4th Circuit; Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas compose the 5th Circuit.

The bill to enlarge the Capitol grounds, and appropriating $50,000 for the improvement of the same, was passed.

The Tariff bill was passed by a vote of ayes 94, nays 53. Tax on cotton fixed at 3 cents per pound; on all foreign coal $1,50 per ton.

The bill reducing the number of Associate Judges of the Supreme Court is another plan to head off the President. He had nominated Stansbury, of Ohio, for the vacancy caused by Judge Catron's death. Under the bill there is no vacancy.

Coffroth, Democrat, from Pennsylvania, will be turned out of his seat in the House, and it will be given to Koontz, his Radical competitor.

It is not believed that the Senate will pass the Tariff bill.

No Family at the South Should be Without Them.

The late Col John Wright, of Goldsboro', N. C. Aug. 14, 1862, says: "I have used the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS in my family here, and also on my plantation in Alabama, and always with success. I have a valuable servant girl who had been a long time under treatment for consumption without receiving any benefit. Almost in her extremity I was induced to try the Hepatic Pills. They were given according to directions, and she is now well, entirely restored by them. A similar case occurred among my servants in Alabama. For liver and lung diseases I have perfect confidence in them.

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious Dyspepsic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

A BOON TO THE SICK.
AND
THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.
DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering, and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged, they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth over

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back, and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most debeate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed dose to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!

Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!
MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or in convenience, the charge is irreasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St., New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

☞ Its Effect is Miraculous! ☜

IT is an entirely new scientific discovery combining many of the most powerful and restorative agents in the vegetable kingdom.

We have such confidence in its merits, and are so sure it will do all we claim for it that we offer if the Sicilian Hair Renewer does not give satisfaction in all cases when used in strict accordance with our instructions.

HALL'S

has proved itself to be the most perfect preparation for the hair ever offered to the public.

It is a vegetable compound, and contains no injurious properties whatever.

It is not a Dye, it strikes at the roots and fills the glands with new life and coloring matter.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp, and makes the Hair soft, lustrous, and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person, old or young, should fail to use it.

It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

SOUTHERN HOTEL,

NOS. 669 & 679 BROADWAY,
NEW YORK, June 1, 1866.

I have the honor to inform the travelling Public that I have become the Proprietor of this beautiful Hotel, and am now painting, frescoing, decorating, refurnishing, &c., in the most splendid and luxurious style.—The Building is of white marble, five stories high, fronting two hundred feet on the gayest part of Broadway; commodiously and comfortably arranged for Families and Single Persons, and is in the very midst of the most elegant stores and shops, and the most fashionable places of amusement.

Elegant Coaches and Carriages always in readiness to convey Passengers to and from Railroad Depots and Steamers.

The Proprietor is determined that the Southern Hotel, in no respect, shall be excelled by any house in this city, and therefore feels confident that he can and will give entire satisfaction to his friends and the traveling community.

HENRY BRUCE,
Late of Kentucky,
July 2-9t Proprietor.

GENERAL BUSINESS AGENCY.

The undersigned tenders his services to the community at home and abroad as a General Business Agent. He will attend diligently to the collecting of all claims, the settling, and closing of all accounts, the buying and selling of any and every species of property or any other business in the State to which parties cannot attend in person, or which they may find it to their interest to entrust to the management of an agent.

As to character and qualifications he is authorized to refer to

Hon. THOS. BRAGG,
GEO. W. MORDECAI, President Bank North Carolina.
KEMP P. BATTLE, Treasurer State.

THE EMPIRE SHINGLE MACHINE.

IS acknowledged to be, by all odds, the best Shingle Machine in America. With only ONE HORSE POWER

3000 Elegant Shingles

per hour are easily made. The machine is built entirely of Iron, very compact and easily transported. It works VENEERS, STAVES and Box Sawy, and out of the same number of bolts of timber, one third more Shingles are made than can be done by the Sawing Machines. All the saw dust is saved by the Empire and goes into the Shingles.
